

We Nailed It

Interior Line

Designed for building interior wall panels, this production line is ideal for customers that want to run a line parallel to their exterior line to increase interior wall production capacity. With only one machine, the Interior Line is a great starting point for customers that are more budget-sensitive and want a system that can grow as their business grows. This production line consists of Subcomponent Tables, Framing Station, and Roller Conveyors.

